News from the Bureau

Greetings from Tuvalu to all our valued Customers!

We hope our services for this year have been satisfactory, and we extend our sincerest apologies for any dissatisfaction and inconveniences we may have caused you. It is also our deepest wish that we will continue to improve on our services and we welcome any comments and suggestions from you.

The Bureau is currently auctioning the artworks of many of its stamp issues. For those interested, please feel free to contact our office. The artworks available are listed in the next article (below).

Thank you all for your support; we truly appreciate it. As we come to the end of the year, we, the staff and management of the bureau, wish to extend you all our very best wishes for 2009 and may you all enjoy the Season's Festivities!
